FLAS Fellowships

Foreign Language and Area Studies (FLAS) Fellowships for MSU graduate and undergraduate students are available through the African Studies Center, provided by a grant from the U.S. Department of Education.

FLAS Fellowships award academic year undergraduate students with $10,000 toward tuition and fees and a stipend of $5,000. Academic year graduate students receive $18,000 toward tuition and fees and $15,000 in stipends. Summer FLAS recipients receive $5,000 in tuition and a $2,500 stipend.

We invite applications for:
• Intensive African Language Study, Summer 2021
  (If restrictions for study abroad are not lifted, some online summer language courses will be offered at MSU).
• Academic Year African Language Study, 2021-2022
  (Languages: Swahili, Yoruba, Arabic, Hausa, Zulu, Igbo, etc.)

To be eligible,

students must be U.S. citizens or permanent residents.
Undergraduate students must be studying the target language at the intermediate or advanced level.
The academic year fellowship requires that students take one language and one area studies course for a letter grade each term during the award period. Summer fellowships are for intensive language study only.

Application Deadline: February 12, 2021
