

NONCREDIT SUMMER 2024 AFRICAN LANGUAGE PROGRAM

Courses open to all including:

- MSU faculty, staff, and students (in or out-of-state OR international)
- Non-MSU affiliated persons from anywhere in the world

The African Studies Center is offering non-credit Swahili and Zulu language instruction this summer on Zoom. This is a non-intensive virtual course (about 8 hours per week) for a low-cost administrative fee of $50.

Everyone who completes the course will obtain a certificate of completion. These courses are perfect for ANYONE who wants to learn a new African language or to brush up on their African language skills.

Dates & Times

May 13th – June 27th
Every Monday to Thursday
9am – 11am
Virtually on ZOOM

$50 paid via the
Eventbrite site

Questions?

Dr. Galen Sibanda at sibanda1@msu.edu

Sawubona

Languages Offered

- Zulu
- Swahili

African Studies Center
MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

REGISTER NOW
open till Friday, May 10th