

Subscribe

Past Issues

View this email in your browser

AFRICA@MSU

MSU African Studies Center March 2, 2021 Spring #8

UPCOMING ACTIVITIES....

Eye on Africa: Dr. Horman Chitonge

Thursday, March 4, 2021

Register for Eye on Africa

African Tea Time: Angola & The Gambia

Thursday, March 4, 2021

Register for African Tea Time

Racism and Slavery | Lunchtime Series

Hosted by Khaled Esseissah, Georgetown University

Friday, March 5, 2021

More Info on the Lunchtime Series

Africa Private Sector Summit

Doing Business Under the AfCFTA

Monday, March 8 - Friday, March 12 2021

More Info on the Africa Private Sector Summit

Subscribe

Past Issues

Lecturer in African Literary and Cultural Studies Job Opportunity

Harvard University

Deadline: Wednesday, March 31, 2021

More Info on Job Opportunity

Comparative Education Review: Call for Papers

Black Lives Matter and Global Struggles for Racial Justice in Education

Inquiry Deadline: Wednesday, March 31, 2021

More Info on Call for Papers

EYE ON AFRICA

Eye on Africa: March 4

AFRICAN TEA TIME

African Tea Time: March 4

Most African economies we have today were established during colonial rule for very specific reasons. Although there is debate about the motive behind the creation of the colonial economy in Africa, one thing that is clear is that economic activities conducted on the continent were not intended to benefit Africans primarily. The purpose of this talk is to illustrate that the colonial economy has survived six decades of self-rule in Africa and that the failure to transform the colonial economy has blocked the other aspects of decolonisation in Africa.

Eye on Africa Event Flier

African Tea Times are an opportunity to learn and share about first-hand experiences on the African continent. Every other week, the African Tea Times focus on different countries. The tea times open to everyone. They are held every other Thursday, 4:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m (EST), and are held virtually on Zoom.

African Tea Time Event Flier

African Private Sector Summit: Doing Business Under the AfCFTA

35th Annual SAVAH Conference: Call for Papers

The notion Africa Rising will remain a misnomer unless conditions for doing business on the continent with ease are created, a paradigm shift is realized

SubscribePast Issues

towards sustainable transformation and development, strategic projects with

SAVAH

South African Visual Arts Historians

35th Annual SAVAHA Conference, to be hosted by the research entity Visual Narratives and Creative Outputs and the Faculty of Humanities, North-West University, Potchefstroom Campus. This virtual conference will take place late September/early October 2021 (date TBC).

We invite papers that explore, inquire, and reflect on visual expression and ways of storytelling that work towards acknowledging, understanding, and (re-)visualising narratives. This is an invitation to scholars to evaluate and re-evaluate positions taken in the field (conceptual and metaphorical frameworks and locations), or in relation to material objects and their existences or locations.

SAVAH Conference: More Info

greater impact are prioritized as well as the harnessing of innovative space.

This conference is designed to bring all these critical success factors into deliberation with the view to concluding with agreements on an implementation plan, accountability structure and assessment mechanism for all adopted projects. Presenters and participants will be drawn from all sectors of society to ascertain comprehensive representation and wider transference of conference commitments.

African Private Sector Summit Flier

GRANTS

Grant opportunities will posted here!

Subscribe

Past Issues

African Studies Center

MICHIGAN STATE UNIVERSITY

Stay in touch.

Visit africa.isp.msu.edu

How to subscribe:

To subscribe to our bulletin,
please email us at africa@msu.edu.

Our mailing address is:

African Studies Center
Michigan State University
International Studies and Programs
427 N. Shaw Lane, Room 100
East Lansing MI 48824-1035

Our email address is:

africa@msu.edu

Want to change how you receive these emails?
You can update your preferences or unsubscribe from this list.

Copyright © 2021 MSU African Studies Center, All rights reserved.