Spring Course Announcement - Islam in Africa
ANP 417, Spring 2019
Wednesdays 3 - 5:50 pm
C302 Snyder Hall
Professor: Mara Leichtman

This course aims to provide an overview of "African Islam" through examining the work of scholars from Anthropology, History, Islamic Studies and other related disciplines. We will begin with an overview of the fundamentals of Islam before turning to the diverse accounts of the historical spread of Islam to Africa, the religious implications of the African slave trade and European colonialism, the making of an Islamic state in Africa, and Islamic education in various African countries and contexts. Themes of religious conversion, gendered dynamics, migration, urbanization, ethno-religious tensions, and the relationship of Islam to human rights will also be explored. Case studies will focus on Senegal, Mali, Nigeria, South Africa, Kenya, Tanzania, Sudan and the Americas. A further goal of this course is to provide students with the conceptual tools necessary to evaluate reports and news about the region, and to understand the subjectivity and bias that often permeates these reports. We will visit the Islamic Center of East Lansing, watch films, and hear alternative accounts of Islam in Africa from guest speakers. Seminar participants will post weekly reactions to readings and activities to a listserv and create, through research and class presentations, their own accounts of African Islamic worlds. This course is open to advanced undergraduate and graduate students.
Please contact Professor Mara Leichtman, maral@msu.edu, for further information or for assistance with an override if needed.
