MSU ANNOUNCEMENTS

Arts and Culture Studies and a Museum Internship in South Africa

Enrollment Deadline: March 1, 2018

Part learning/travel abroad, part internship - this hybrid program provides opportunities to explore and participate in contemporary art and culture in South Africa. South Africa has a rich history of expressive culture dating from some of the world's first examples of rock art to today's art that reflects the complexities of a multi-cultural society undergoing tremendous transformations. Before the end of apartheid and the establishment of a new government in 1994, much of the nation's art, music, history, and culture were little known to the rest of the world.

The total program runs for approximately 9 weeks: one pre-travel week of instruction via Google Hangout; 3 weeks of instructional travel in Johannesburg/Pretoria and Cape Town (with a two-day side trip to Kruger National Park) followed by a five week internship in a major museum or cultural heritage organization in Cape Town.

The program accepts lifelong education students as well as those enrolled in other college programs, both domestically and internationally.

For more detailed information and to read blogs from students in past programs, go here. Deadline for enrollment is March 1, 2018 but only six spots available and acceptance is on a rolling basis so early commitment strongly encouraged.

Abrams Planetarium Public Shows

Skywatchers of Africa

Fridays and Saturdays 8:00 p.m.

Sundays 4:00 p.m. (until March 25th)

For thousands of years, Africans have used their knowledge of the sky to build their societies, shape their spiritual lives, and meet their physical needs for survival. Skywatchers of Africa highlights the diversity of African astronomy, examines cultural uses of the sky that developed throughout history, and celebrates our shared human experience.

Admission prices for all shows are: Adults, $4.50; Students and seniors, $4.00; and children age 12 and under, $3.50. Parking is free.

For more information on the program, call 517-355-4672

Immediate Job Opportunity

Matrix, the Center for Digital Humanities and Social Sciences at MSU is looking for students interested in historical slavery studies and in learning more about the Atlantic slave trade. Students will be responsible for researching the lives of enslaved individuals and writing short narratives about their lives. These will be paid positions, starting at $12.00 (higher starting for graduate students). Qualifications include strong research and writing skills. If interested, please contact Dean Rehberger at rehberge@msu.edu and copy Kayla VanDyke (kvdk@msu.edu) to set up an interview.

Spring 2018 Undergraduate Research Workshop Series

The Office of Undergraduate Research provides workshops for students looking to learn more about how to get started in undergraduate research, tips for experienced researchers, and information for students interested in finding a summer research position.

Grants and Fellowships

Mellon Scholars Research Fellowship Program at the Library
Company of Philadelphia's Program in African American History
Deadline for application: March 1, 2018

This program includes a post-doctoral fellowship, dissertation fellowship, and short-term fellowships designed to increase the participation of scholars from underrepresented backgrounds and others in the field of African American history prior to 1900. Eligible candidates may apply for both a short-term and either a dissertation or post-doctoral fellowship here. For more information and questions, contact Program Director Dr. Erica Armstrong Dunbar at erica.dunbar@rutgers.edu or Reference Librarian and Specialist Jasmine Smith at jsmith@librarycompany.org.

2018 Richard Lee Featherstone Endowed Prize

Deadline: March 9, 2018

The Endowed Prize seeks to identify the most outstanding graduating senior, based on the criteria below, and to grant an award to be used for "future growth and development, travel, graduate study, or meditation," to quote one of the Prize founders, Gerald Faverman. In 2018, the amount awarded will be approximately $4,000.

Selection Criteria

1. The award recipient must be a Michigan State University senior, majoring in any discipline, who is expected to graduate during 2018 (Spring, Summer, or Fall).
2. The award recipient will exhibit an open, curious, creative approach to education and ideas, and intellectual ingenuity will be evident. More weight will be given to intellectual curiosity and innovation than to grades attained, although a cumulative GPA above 3.0 is preferred.
3. The award recipient will have demonstrated exceptional character and leadership in furthering her/his own progress and in enriching the lives of others. The recipient will also have demonstrated innovation and creativity over their career at Michigan State University. A commitment to community service should be evident.

Nomination Procedure

There is no formal nomination or application form. Each nomination packet should include:

- One letter of nomination from a Michigan State University faculty or academic staff member (includes advisors). Letters of support are not necessary. The letter of nomination should be addressed to the Featherstone Nomination Committee, 312 Administration Building.
- An essay or letter written by the student of not more than 1,000 words, which describes their journey to and through Michigan State University and their future goals. The student's name, MSU Net ID, address, and telephone number must be included on the student's submission.
- Student's resume (not to exceed 2 pages)

The nomination letter, student essay, and student resume should address the ways in which the student exemplifies the award criteria. Specific examples of activities and achievements are especially helpful to the selection committee. The application package should be submitted as one complete attachment and should be emailed in PDF format to lfrechen@msu.edu no later than Friday, March 9, 2018 at 5 pm. Late applications will not be considered.

Finalists will be notified for an in-person interview. The presentation of the Featherstone Prize Award plaque to the recipient takes place at the appropriate commencement/awards ceremony the first weekend in May.

For further information, contact the Office of the Associate Provost for Undergraduate Education at (517) 353-5380 (e-mail: lfrechen@msu.edu) or the Featherstone Society representative, Dr. Jackie Taylor (jdiane@comcast.net).
