

EYE ON AFRICA

MSU African Studies Center invites you to join us for Eye on Africa!

SPRING 2024

Thursdays, 12PM to 1:30PM (EST)

REGISTER HERE TO ATTEND TALKS VIA ZOOM

Date/Venue	Name/Affiliation	Topic
January 18 Hybrid: International Center Room 201 & Zoom	Mary Njeri Karanu Program Officer Rural Outreach Africa Nairobi, Kenya	A human Rights Approach to Zero Hunger: A Prospectus from Kenya.
February 01 Hybrid: International Center Room 303 & Zoom	Mohamed Kamara Department of Romance Languages; Program in Africana Studies Washington and Lee University	Never-ending Domination: The French Colonial School and Social Transformation in Africa
February 08 Hybrid: International Center Room 303 & Zoom	Stephen Esquith Department of Philosophy Michigan State University	Breaking the Cycle of Violence in Mali
February 15 Virtual	Leslie Hadfield Department of History Brigham Young University	TBD
February 22 Virtual	Solomon Belette Founder and General Manager US Africa Initiatives (USAFI) LLC	TBD
March 07 Virtual	Emily Riley Centro de Estudios de Asia y Africa El Colegio de México	Teraanga Republic: Women’s Authority and Politics in Senegal
March 14 Hybrid: International Center Room 303 & Zoom	Peter Alegi Department of History Michigan State University	Afripod: How Podcasting Is Changing African Studies
March 21 Hybrid: International Center Room 303 & Zoom	Matthew Kirwin US Department of State & George Washington University (Elliott School of International Affairs)	TBD
March 28 In person International Center Room 303	African Graduate Student Panel Michigan State University	TBD
April 04 Hybrid: International Center Room 303 & Zoom	Ellis Adams Keough School of Global Affairs University of Notre Dame	Why Should a Married Man Fetch Water? Masculinities, Gender Relations, and Household Water Insecurity in Urban Malawi
April 11 Hybrid: International Center Room 303 & Zoom	Nicholas Kerr Department of Political Science University of Florida	Electoral Commissions & Democratization in Africa: Everyday Production of Democratic Legitimacy
April 18 Hybrid: International Center Room 201 & Zoom	Ababacar Gueye Department of Economics Université Cheikh Anta Diop Dakar, Senegal	The market of onions in Senegal: Challenges and opportunities